

Metropolitan Warehouse Renovation A New Design Hub for MIT

The Met Warehouse resides at the nexus of Massachusetts Avenue and Vassar Street. This image reveals the new entrance to the building.

The towering lobby space welcomes visitors and sets the tone for the building.

The building includes planned studio space for the Department of Urban Studies and Planning.

The Project Manus-run makerspace welcomes the entire MIT community.

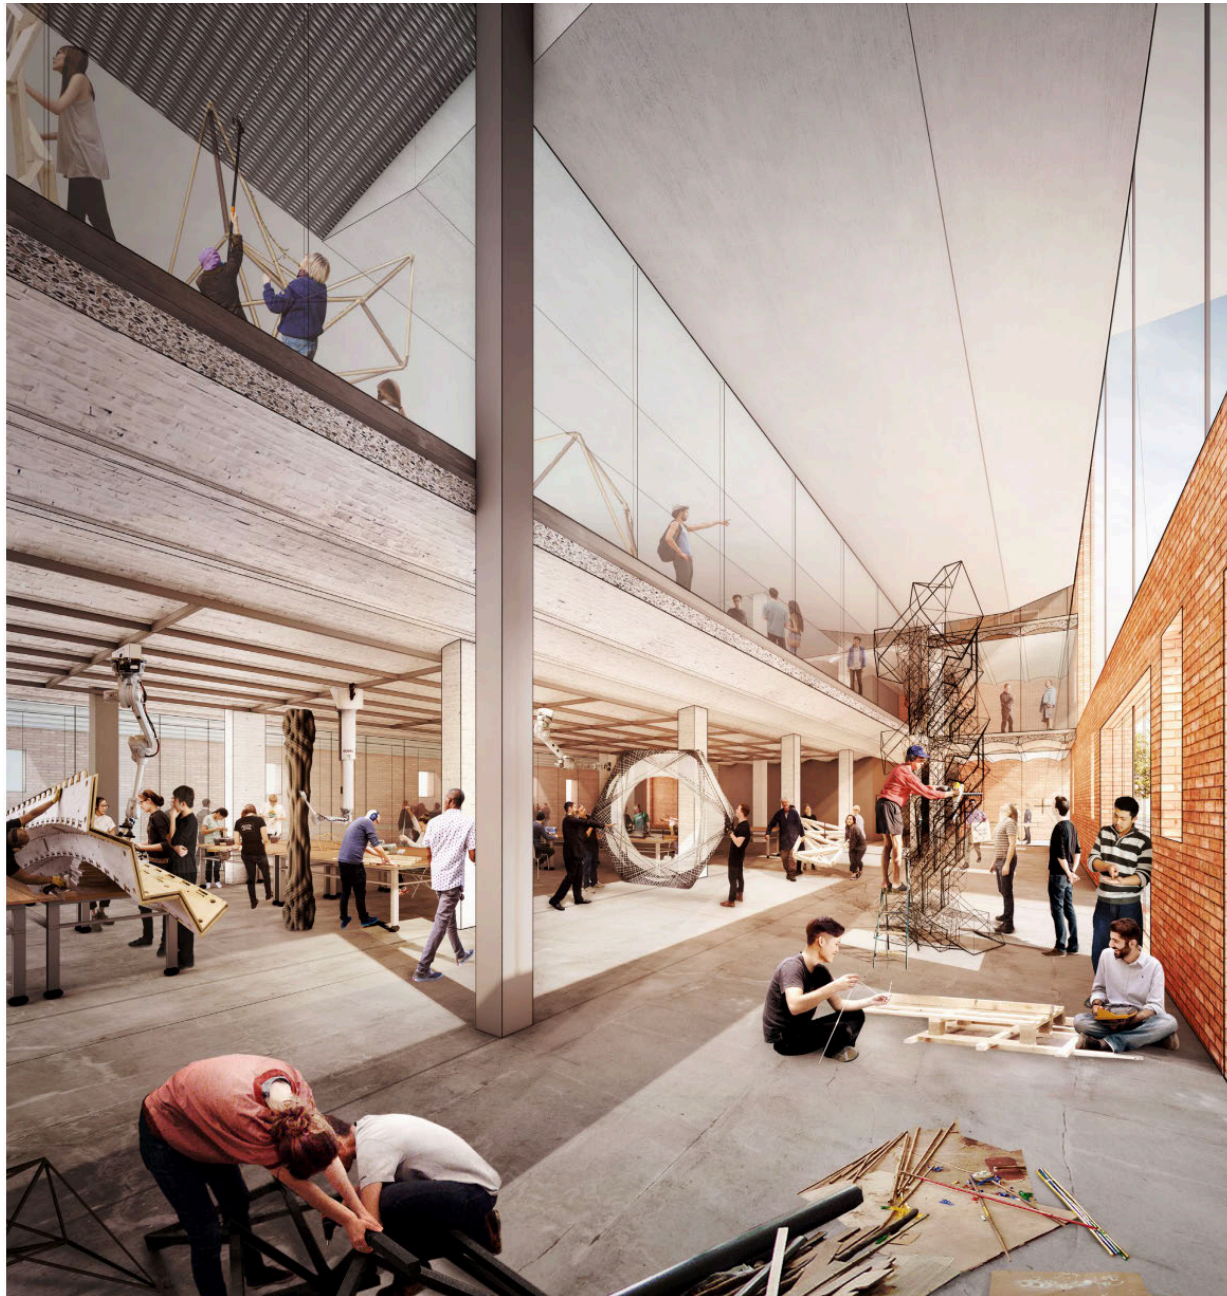

Double-height design and review space showcases student design work.

A lounge provides a welcoming retreat for students.

Large-scale making projects will come to life in a soaring two-story space.
